Intro: G G C Am7 C D D
                                                         And the sparkle in your eyes
                                                                C
Julianne
                                                          There's a colour deep inside them
                                                          Like a blue suburban sky
Saying I love you is
                                                          I don't need to be the king of the world not the words I want to hear from you
                                                                         D
                                                          As long as I'm the hero of this little girl
It's not that I want you
