

Jungkook - My You

tom:

A

A Dbm

Summer has already spread in the air

Bm E

Breeze is already blowing

A Dbm

The last cold snap is going out

Bm E

The days were getting longer and longer

A Dbm

But my days were still going on and on and on

Bm E

I got wet in the Sun shower and looked up at

The night sky

A Dbm

It was quite a lonely night

Bm

In the blink of an eye

E

The dark faded out

A Dbm

Blooming under the sunlight

Bm E

Memories with me and you

All these lights are colored in by you

Dbm

All these times are precious due to you

Bm

Four seasons have passed with you

Four scents were left ?cause of you

All the reasons why I can laugh out

Dbm

All the reasons why I sing this song

Bm

Thankful to be by your side now

I'll try to shine brighter than now
