                                                 D
      Am I a sinner, cause half my dinner is still on my plate.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     Em D C G
Ooo I got a vision, to make a difference.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                I close my eyes
                                             G
      And its starting today.
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               D G
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                And pray
