

Justin Moore - Grandpa

tom:
Capo: Ab (forma dos acordes no tom de G)
Intro:

G
You stood on that bank when I got baptized
Em
Gave me a thirty thirty when I turned nine
Cadd9
At sixteen you caught me drinking out in the barn
G
I could hear you cheering when we won state
Em
And you held my hand at Grandma's grave
Cadd9
And I'll always be thankful you never sold the farm

Cadd9 D
Grandpa you stood so tall
G Cadd9
Chewed that Red Man, wore overalls
D Em
You were the same man on Sunday morning as Saturday night
Cadd9 D
Five foot six to the top of your hat
Em Cadd9
But when you talked bout the war thought you were Superman
D Em
American born simple man with a southern drawl
Cadd9 D G
You walk the walk, you talk the talk, Grandpa

(G D G)

G
You still swear Roosevelt was the best
Em
That a home grown tomato tastes better than the rest
Cadd9 G
And fifty years goes too fast with a woman you love

Well this life I've chose is gettin' busy now
Em
But i know where to go when i need to slow down
Cadd9
And when I walk up on your front porch

Cadd9 D
Grandpa you stood so tall
Em Cadd9
Chewed that Red Man, wore overalls
D Em
You were the same man on Sunday morning as Saturday night
Cadd9 D
Five foot six to the top of your hat
Em Cadd9
But when you talked bout the war thought you were Superman
D Em
American born simple man with a southern drawl
Cadd9 D G
You walk the walk, you talk the talk, Grandpa
Cadd9 D Em
Yeah American born a dirt road man with that slow southern drawl
D G
Now keep walkin' the walk and talkin' the talk Grandpa
