Am                            F                       C
   I can use a better friend than the one I've got, my shadow
Am                          C
   Even when the Sun goes down, he will leave me by myself
Am                       F                        C
   In the mornin' he returns, but he doesn't ever say much
Am                    F              C
   I don't wanna ride alone down this dark and lonesome road

Am                  F                  C           E
'Cause even cowboys can get lonely from time to time
Am                 F                  C
'Cause even cowboys do get lonesome sometimes
            Am          F           C
Yes, but I, I know one thing, I've come much too far
                  Am                    F
Yeah, to let you go now, please, don't let me go
              C
Lord, don't let me go

Am                           F                  C
   Share the silence with a fire, roll the rest of my tobacco
Am                  F                 C
   Tellin' stories to myself, but I know them all too well
(mm)
Am                      F                  C
   When the desert night is cold, I just want someone to hold me close
Am                    F                  C
   I don't wanna die alone, who's gonna love me when I'm gone?

Am                  F                  C
'Cause even cowboys can get lonely from time to time (mm-hmm)
Am          F           C
Even cowboys do get lonesome sometimes
            Am          F           C
Yes, but I, I know one thing, I've come much too far

                  Am                    F
Oh, to let you go now, please, don't let me go
Lord, don't let me go

( Am  F  C )
( Am  F  C )

Am            F                    C
   Look into my naked eye, reflect out into the horizon
Am                   F                            C
   Ooh, yet another day goes by and there's not a soul in sight
Am                   F                 C
   As I ride into the dark, as I ride into the sunset
Am                  F                  C
   I guess it's time to say goodbye to the rider of the night

Am                  F                  C
'Cause even cowboys can get lonely from time to time
Am                  F                  C
'Cause even cowboys can get lonesome sometimes
            Am          F
Yes, but I, I know one thing
I know one thing I've come much too far
                  Am                    F
Oh, to let you go now, please, don't let me go
Lord, don't let me go

G                         E      Am  F
'Cause even cowboys do get lonely
Oh, just like me
G        C
Yes, even me
F              C
Oh, just like me
G        C
   Even me
