Kamelot - Here's To The Fall

```
Fm
                                                             Will you still save me?
                           tom:
               Bbm
                                                                               Fbm
                                                             God, why won't you answer me
           [Primeira Parte]
                                                                         Gbm D
                                                             What is left to see?
Bbm
   I am your God
                                                             [Refrão]
             Fm
Tell me what's on your mind
                                                             Here's to the fall
            Ebm
                                                             Gm
                                                                              D
My demons are hunting me
                                                                The fall of us all
        Gbm D
                                                                  Fb
                                                                                             Cm
Eating me alive
                                                             Are we nothing but leaves in the wind?
Bbm
  I fear the unknown
                                                             Here's to the fall
                                                             Gm
             Fm
The darkness before me
                                                              Here's to the darkness to come
            Ebm
                                                             Cm
                                                                              Eb
Will we ever start anew?
                                                             For us all (for us all)
                Gbm D
                                                                  F
                                                                            Fm
Wait and you will see
                                                             Turning day into night
                                                             [Ponte]
Fm Fm Bbm7
[Refrão]
Here's to the fall
                                                             Help me to see
                 D
                                                                         Fm
                                                                                    Db
 The fall of us all
                                                             Through your masquerade like
      Eb
                                Cm
                                                             C C
Are we nothing but leaves in the wind?
                                                             Perfect disguise
                                                             Fm Fm Fm
                                                             Open your eyes
Bbm7 C Db
Here's to the fall
Gm
                 D
 Here's to the darkness to come
                                                             Help me to see
Cm
                Eb
                                                              D
For us all (for us all)
                                                             (Here's to the coming fall)
      F
              Bbm
Turning day into night
                                                             [Refrão Final]
      Gb7M
                                                             Here's to the fall
Bbm
   Oh... Into night
                                                             Gm
                                                                The fall of us all
(Bbm Fm Fm)
                                                                   Fb
                                                                                             Cm
                                                             Are we nothing but leaves in the wind?
[Segunda Parte]
                                                             Here's to the fall
Bbm
                                                                              D
                                                             Gm
   When I'm weak in my faith
                                                               Here's to the darkness to come
              Fm
                                                             Cm
                                                                              Eb
Will you still believe in me?
                                                             For us all (for us all)
                                                                  F
         Ebm
                                                                         Fm
My cynical imagery
                                                             Turning day into night
            Gbm D
                                                             Bbm
                                                                              C
Feeds my disbelief
                                                                    May our souls survive
Bbm
   And when I'm lost in the dark
Acordes
                Gb7M
                               Bbn
                                                         Ebn
                                                                      Gbn
                                            Fn
                                                                                                Gm
                                                               ukulele-chords.com
```

ukulele-chords.com

ukulele-chords.com

ukulele-chords.com

Eb

Oferecimento Lojalele.com.br