Kamelot - Here's To The Fall

```
Fm
                                                            Will you still save me?
                          tom:
               Bbm
                                                                             Fbm
                                                            God, why won't you answer me
           [Primeira Parte]
                                                                       Gbm D
                                                            What is left to see?
Bbm
   I am your God
                                                            [Refrão]
             Fm
Tell me what's on your mind
                                                           Here's to the fall
            Ebm
                                                            Gm
                                                                             D
                                                              The fall of us all
My demons are hunting me
       Gbm D
                                                                 Fb
                                                                                           Cm
Eating me alive
                                                            Are we nothing but leaves in the wind?
Bbm
  I fear the unknown
                                                            Here's to the fall
             Fm
                                                            Gm
The darkness before me
                                                             Here's to the darkness to come
           Ebm
                                                            Cm
                                                                            Eb
Will we ever start anew?
                                                            For us all (for us all)
                Gbm D
                                                                 F
                                                                          Fm
Wait and you will see
                                                            Turning day into night
                                                            [Ponte]
Fm Fm Bbm
[Refrão]
Here's to the fall
                                                            Help me to see
                D
                                                                       Fm
                                                                                  Db
 The fall of us all
                                                            Through your masquerade like
     Eb
                               Cm
                                                            C C
Are we nothing but leaves in the wind?
                                                            Perfect disguise
                                                            Fm Fm Fm
Here's to the fall
                                                              Open your eyes
                                                            Bbm C Db
Gm
                D
 Here's to the darkness to come
                                                            Help me to see
Cm
                Eb
                                                            D
For us all (for us all)
                                                            (Here's to the coming fall)
     F
              Bbm
Turning day into night
                                                            [Refrão Final]
     Gb
                                                            Here's to the fall
Bbm
   Oh... Into night
                                                            Gm
                                                              The fall of us all
(Bbm Fm Fm)
                                                                  Fb
                                                                                           Cm
                                                            Are we nothing but leaves in the wind?
[Segunda Parte]
                                                           Here's to the fall
Bbm
                                                                             D
                                                            Gm
   When I'm weak in my faith
                                                             Here's to the darkness to come
              Fm
                                                            Cm
                                                                            Eb
Will you still believe in me?
                                                            For us all (for us all)
                                                                 F
         Ebm
                                                                        Fm
My cynical imagery
                                                            Turning day into night
           Gbm D
                                                            Bbm
                                                                            C
Feeds my disbelief
                                                                  May our souls survive
Bbm
   And when I'm lost in the dark
Acordes
                                           Ebn
                                                                                              EЬ
                                                                     D
```

Gbn nkulele-chords.com

ukulele-chords.com

ukulele-chords.com

ukulele-chords.com

Cn

ukulele-chords.com