

Kane Brown - What Ifs

tom:
               Gm (forma dos acordes no tom de Em )
Capostraste na 3º casa
                                                             What if I was made for you and you were made for me?
Intro: Em G D Em G D
                                                             What if this is it, what if it's meant to be?
[Primeira Parte]
                                                             What if I ain't one of them fools just playin' some game?
                 Em
You say what if I hurt you, what if I leave you
                                                             What if I just pulled you close, what if I leaned in?
                  G
What if I find somebody else and I don't need you?
                                                             And the stars line up and it's our last first kiss
          Em G
                                  D
                                                             What if one of these days, baby, I'd go and change your name?
What if this goes south, what if I mess you up?
You say what if I break your heart in two, then what?
                                                             What if I loved all these what ifs away?
        Em
                         G
Well, I hear you girl, I feel you girl but not so fast
                                                             [Solo]
'Fore you make your mind up I gotta ask
                                                             G D Em G D Em G D
                                                                 Aw yeah,
                                                                                   c'mon
[Refrão]
                                                             [Ponte]
What if I was made for you and you were made for me?
                                                             Well, say what if I hurt you, what if I leave you?
What if this is it, what if it's meant to be?
                                                             What if I find somebody else and I don't need you?
                                                                                                                 (Damn)
What if I ain't one of them fools just playin' some game?
                                                             [Refrão]
What if I just pulled you close, what if I leaned in?
                                                             What if I was made for you and you were made for me?
                                  Fm
And the stars line up and it's our last first kiss
                                                             What if this is it, what if it's meant to be?
What if one of these days, baby, I'd go and change your name?
                                                             What if I ain't one of them fools just playin' some game?
What if I loved all these what ifs away?
                                                             What if I just pulled you close, what if I leaned in?
[Segunda Parte]
                                                             And the stars line up and it's our last first kiss
                                                                    С
                                                             What if one of these days, baby, I'd go and change your name?
What if the sky falls (sky falls) or the sun stops burnin'?
We could worry about them what ifs 'til the world stops
                                                             What if I loved all these what ifs away?
                                                             [Final]
Or I could kiss you (you should kiss me)
                                                             G D Em G D
                                                             A-way (away)
Em G D Em G D
What if you liked it? (bet I'd like it)
Well, we ain't never gonna know unless we try it
                                                                       What if?
