You are the girl

You are the girl
That I've been dreaming of
Ever since I was a little girl
One, I'm biting my tongue
Two, he's kissing on you
Three, can't you see that
One, two, three, four
                                                               He suspects a thing I wish I didn't do
The word's on the streets and it's on the news
I'm not gonna teach him how to dance with you
He's got two left feet and he bites my moves
                                                                You are the girl
I'm not gonna teach him how to Dance! Dance! Dance!
                                                                That I've been dreaming of
                                                                Ever since I was a little girl
The second I do I know that we'll be through
                                                                You are the girl
I'm not gonna teach him how to dance with you
                                                                That I've been dreaming of
He suspects a thing I wish I didn't do
                                                                Ever since I was a little girl
I'm not gonna teach him how to Dance! Dance! Dance!
                                                                You are the girl

                                                                That I've been dreaming of
That I've been dreaming of

                                                                That I've been dreaming of
That I've been dreaming of
                                                                Ever since I was a little girl
