

Katharine McPhee - Better Off Alone

Tom: C

One thing I'm wondering
 When you run out of friends
 Will you be coming back home
 Let's think this through again
 Let's take a different spin
 Why can't I leave you alone

Somewhere tonight
 You may be found
 With some other girl you've been dragging around
 You lied to yourself
 You lied to me
 It seems like the truth is your worst enemy

Chorus:
 'Cause baby I'm tired
 I'm tired of the fight
 I'm tired of the lonely days and the dark endless nights
 It's taken some time
 'Cause I didn't know
 If I could ever let you go

You helped me figure it out
 I'm better off alone , alone
 I'm better off alone , Yes I am

Verse 2:
 I may be found somewhere tonight
 Cursing the day you walked into my life
 But what's done is done
 I can't change time
 But I'll be damned if I'm not gonna try

Oh, I'm gonna try

Chorus:
 But baby I'm tired
 I'm tired of the fight
 I'm tired of the lonely days and the dark endless nights
 It's taken some time
 'Cause I didn't know
 If I could ever let you go

 Bridge:
 I'm better off alone
 But every now and then
 My heart gives in
 To the hope the someday you'll change
 Then alone I'll wake
 To my own mistakes
 That is just the foolish game

Chorus:
 I'm tired , tired of the fight
 I'm tired of the lonely lonely lonely days
 And the dark endless nights
 You didn't think
 'Cause you didn't know
 That I'd find the strength to let , Let you go
 I finally figured it out
 I'm better off alone
 Better off alone

Outro:
 One thing before I go
 Something I gotta know
 Boy, did you ever love me
