

Katy Perry - The Better Half Of Me

Tom: E

(intro 2x) E B Dbm Abm

i took advantage of you a stepping stone to my pedestal when you had enough of it i said fine good luck replacing this caz i seem strong and independent self sufficient confident and i'm like mercury rising to the top so selfishly the better half of me was you i'm like a hive without a bee without you i gotta find ya gotta remind ya that two is better than one so please accept my apology caz im feeling like a branch without its tree it took me a fall to really see that your the catch i wanna keep caz i get weak thinking about you living without you life has no value baby come back to me caz youre the only missing piece

Dbm E

caz the better half of me was you im like the hive without its bee without you i gotta find ya gotta remind ya
ooh it took a little earthquake to appreciate the stability youve given me so consistanly yeaah yeah

(E B Dbm E B A A)

im like a bird without its wings without you
that two is stronger than one the better half of me oh its you im like a heart without its beat

without you
i promise you that i'm gotta try to i'm gonna love ya caz two is better than one
