Verse 1

G D
C
 I am a man with both feet planted on the ground
G D
 I'm the one they depend on to keep things tied down
C D
 And when the wind blows they all need to know
G D
 I'm the daddy, the savior and I'm sorry there's a storm
C
G
 But sometimes I don't feel that strong and a part of me surrenders
Am
D
 What the man in me has forgotten, the boy in me remembers

G C G
 When I could fly, when I could fly
C G
 Above the fields and valleys wide
C Em D
 Earth below and above me sky
C D G

I could do anything when I could fly

Interlude

G D-C

Verse 2

I have a boy, now he's a lot like me
 There are something's I can teach him, there's even more he teaches me
 He has the courage to challenge gravity
 He's here the sky worth, it's easy, it comes so naturally
 He has no fear of falling the way his daddy does Seeing him so carefree remind how it was

Chorus

When I could fly, when I could fly
 Above the fields and valleys wide
 Earth below and above me sky
 I could do anything when I could fly

Bridge

F C
 This world has gotten heavy as I've gotten older
Cm G
D
 But when I lift this boy of mine high above my shoulders

Chorus

I can fly, I can fly
 Above the fields and valleys wide
 Earth below and above me sky
 I can do anything when I can fly
