

Kayak - May

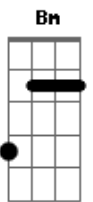

tom:
 May, now the sun has slipped away
 Leaving the cold
 Oh, how swift the night unfolds
 Darkness appears
 Oh, let me hold you near
 So take my hand and trust me my love
 Wherever we may go
 Together through the world
 May, now the blue has turned to grey
 Summer fades fast
 Oh, how soon the leaves must fall
 May, now the swallows fly away
 Follow the sun
 Oh, how quickly love's undone
 So hurry love and take my heart
 Wherever you may go
 Alone through the world

No one can touch us now
 We have our love
 And though we can't hold the summer for long
 May you will leave though our love carries on
 (D Bm D G)
 (Em G A G A)
 (D Bm D G)
 (Em G A G A)
 So hurry love and take my heart
 Wherever you will go
 Alone through the world
 No one can touch you now
 We had our love
 And though the winter will come much too soon
 May you must fly by the silver of moon
 (D A D G)
 (G D G)
 (G D G)
 (A G A)
 No one can touch us now
 We had our love
 And though the seasons will change much too soon
 May you must fly by the silver of moon
 (A G A D)
