                                                               But I've been worng and I've been down so many times
Something's crept in under our door, silence soaking through Em7

Pinching like a stone in my shoe, some chemical is breaking down the glue
                                                               Bm A G
That's been binding me to you I see the landscape change before my eyes, the features I've been navigating by
                                                                                        A Fm7
Oh, I feel like I just don't know you anymore
                                                               No, nothing looks the way it did before
But I've been burnt and I've been wrong so many times
                                                               I don't know where to look or what to look for
We walk in circles, the blind leading the blind
                                                               Oh, I feel like I just don't know you anymore
Well I thought that love watched over this house
                                                               But I've been burnt and I've been down so many times
But you're boarding up the windows now
                                                               We walk in circles the blind leading the blind, we've been

We're leaning on each other so hard, tied so tight we wound up miles apart
                                                               There's an invisible wall between us now
                                                               But I've been wrong and I've been down so many times Making simple things so hard
Oh, I feel like I just don't know you anymore
                                                               We walk in circles the blind leading the blind, we've been disconnected somehow
But I've been burnt and I've been down so many times
