

Kehlani - Altar

tom: E

[Primeira Parte]

Fresh white flowers and a new tea light
 Nine cups of water, still water
 Soon I'll see your face
 Don't know why I ever thought you were far away
 I should've known better

[Pré-Refrão]

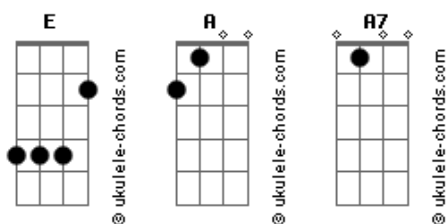

If I set a flame and I call your name
 I'll fix you a plate, we can go to dinner
 We can share a meal your way
 And I'll play you the songs that you used to play

[Refrão]

So I put you on the altar, stay just a little bit longer, woah
 Laid it out for ya', thought I felt you before
 Now you're closer, closer, woah
 So I put you on the altar, stay just a little bit longer, woah
 Laid it out for ya', thought I felt you before
 Now you'r? closer, closer, woah, woah

[Sgeunda Parte]

Acordes

Holdin' on to things you told me
 Holdin' on to dr?ams you showed me
 Holdin' on to anything from you
 That you've been leaving here
 Now I believe I swear
 I can smell your perfume
 Picking up your signal like a phonebooth
 Keeping you alive and I do it 'cause I want to

[Pré-Refrão]

If I set a flame and I call your name
 I'll fix you a plate, we can go to dinner
 We can share a meal your way
 And I'll play you the songs that you used to play

[Refrão]

So I put you on the altar, stay just a little bit longer, woah
 Laid it out for ya', thought I felt you before
 Now you're closer, closer, woah (Now you're closer)
 So I put you on the altar, stay just a little bit longer, woah
 Laid it out for ya', thought I felt you before
 But now you're closer, closer, woah, woah (Closer)
