

Kenny Chesney - Beer In Mexico

Tom: D

Chords: D D G Em A

D D
Starin' out into the wild blue yonder

G
So many thoughts to sit and ponder

D D
'Bout life and love and lack of

G
And this emptiness in my heart

D D
Too old to be wild and free still

G
Too young to be over the hill

D
Should I try to grow up

D G
But who knows where to start

Chorus

So I'll just ...

D D G
Sit right here, have another beer in Mexico

D D G
Do my best to waste another day

D D G
Sit right here and have another beer in Mexico

Em A G
Let the warm air melt these blues away

D D
Sun comes up and sun sinks down

G
And I seen 'em both in this tourist town

D D
Up for days in a rage

G
Just tryin' to search my soul

D D
From the answers and the reasons why

G
I'm at these crossroads in my life

D D
And I really don't know

D G
Which way to go

Chorus

So I'll just ...

D D G
Sit right here, have another beer in Mexico

D D G
Do my best to waste another day

D D G
Sit right here and have another beer in Mexico

Em A G
Let the warm air melt these blues away

Bridge

Em D
Maybe I'll settle down, get married

G D
Or stay single and stay free

Em D
Which road I travel

G A
Is still a mystery to me

Chorus

So I'll just ...

D D G
Sit right here, have another beer in Mexico

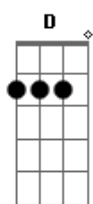

D D G
Do my best to waste another day

D D G
Sit right here and have another beer in Mexico

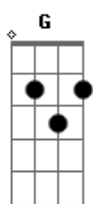

Em A G
Let the warm air melt these blues away

Down in Mexico? D D G
