

Kevin Ayers - Lady Rachel

Tom: C

Am F
She climbs up the stairs by the light of a candle
Am F Am
Then the door with no handle is closing behind her again
Am F
She places the light on a chair by the window
Am
Says a prayer while the wind blows
F Am
And then in her bed clothes she hides

C G
Now she's safe from the darkness
Dm Am
She's safe from its clutch
C G F Em
Now nothing can harm her, at least not very much

C Db C Am
What will you dream of tonight Lady Rachel?
C Db A
What will you dream of tonight?
C Db C Am
Who will you dream of tonight Lady Rachel?
C Db Ab A
Who will you dream of tonight?

Am F
She climbs up a hill and is handed a parcel
Am
Then she unwraps the parcel
F Am
And discovers a castle inside
Am
The draw bridge is open

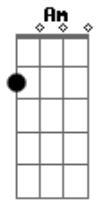

F
And a voice from the water
Am
Says, Welcome my daughter"
F Am
"We've all been expecting you to come"
Am F
She climbs up the stairs with the light of a candle
Am F Am
Then the door with no handle is closing behind her again

C G
Now she's safe from the darkness
Dm Am
She's safe from its clutch
C G F Em
Now nothing can harm her, at least not very much

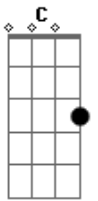

C Db C Am
What will you dream of tonight Lady Rachel?
C Db A
What will you dream of tonight?
C Db C Am
Who will you dream of tonight Lady Rachel?
C Db Ab A
Who will you dream of tonight?

C Db C Am
What will you dream of tonight Lady Rachel?
C Db A
What will you dream of tonight?
C Db C Am
Who will you dream of tonight Lady Rachel?
C Db Ab A
Who will you dream of tonight?

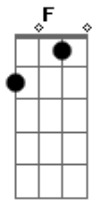

Acordes

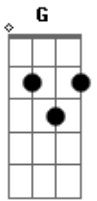

© ukulele-chords.com

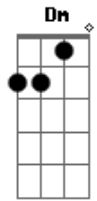

© ukulele-chords.com

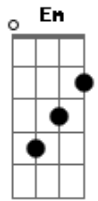

© ukulele-chords.com

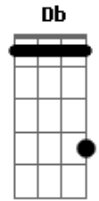

© ukulele-chords.com

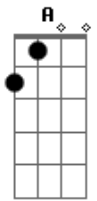

© ukulele-chords.com

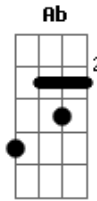

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com

© ukulele-chords.com