

Khatlyn Profeta - Take Me

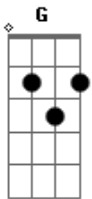

tom:
 Hey, sometimes I think of you in a selfish way
 I see myself in a world so messy, so tiring
 Then I call for you in my head, but you don't listen
 Sorry, I call you my mind, you can't know
 Take me out of here, please!
 Take me with you, anywhere!
 Take me in your heart, make me happy!
 Hey, I realized, with you I don't think about these things
 I am happy just to be by your side, listening
 Then I call your name aloud, for everyone

Baby, you're not just in my thoughts, you know
 Take me out of here, please!
 Take me with you, anywhere!
 Take me in your heart, make me happy!
 Hey, you did it, but how you changed my life
 I see your love crashing my world, rebuilding
 Then I call you to my life, forever together and pleased
 Honey, your magic way to be can not be closer
 Take me out with you, please!
 Take me with you, everywhere!
 Take me in your heart, I will make you happy!
