

King Gizzard & The Lizard Wizard - The Bird Song

```
To a cloud, what is a breeze?

B A E Gb D Eb E
                          tom:
Intro: E C
                                                           It's a prede_ter_mined sneeze
                                                           E D A
                                                                        E
                                                           To a seal, what is real?
                                                           B A E # D Eb E
                                                           Sure_ly more than it can feel
[Chorus]
                                                            [Refrão]
(B Aadd9 E)
                                                            (B Aadd9 E)
            B Aadd9 E
                                                                        В
                                                                          Aadd9 E
To a bird, what's a plane?
                                                           To a bird, what's a plane?
           B Aadd9 E
                                                                       B Aadd9 E
A shiny flying elephant
                                                           A shiny flying elephant
           B Aadd9 E
                                                                        B Aadd9 E
To a tree, what's a house?
                                                           To a tree, what's a house?
            E E
Is that even relevant?
                                                           Can it think at all?
             D Db B E
                                                                         D Db B E
                                                           Does a bird know its name?
Does a bird know its name?
                      F#2 B B E
                                                                                  F#2 B B E
     To a bird, what's a plane?
                                                                 To a bird, what's a plane?
                                                            [Final]
[Primeira Parte]
                                                            (B Aadd9 E)
BAEEB
                                                                        B Aadd9 E
                                                           To a bird, what's a plane?
To a cow, what is a car?
                                                                        B Aadd9
                                                           To a bird, what's a plane?
```

[Refrão] Aadd9 E To a bird, what's a plane? Aadd9 E A shiny flying elephant Aadd9 E To a tree, what's a house? Aadd9 E Can it think at all? D Db B E Does a bird know its name? F#2 B B E To a bird, what's a plane?

B Aadd9 To a bird, what's a plane? B Aadd9 E To a bird, what's a plane? B Aadd9 To a bird, what's a plane? B Aadd9 E To a bird, what's a plane? B Aadd9 To a bird, what's a plane? B Aadd9 To a bird, what's a plane? B Aadd9 E To a bird, what's a plane? B Aadd9 To a bird, what's a plane? B Aadd9 To a bird, what's a plane?

[Segunda Parte]

Acordes

