

Kirk Franklin - Lean On Me

Tom: F

There's a man Standing on the corner
 He has no home He has no food
 And his blue skies are gone
 Can't you hear him cryin' out
 And there's a girl Searching for a father and a friend
 Praying that the storm someday will end
 But instead of walking away
 Open up your heart and say

Refrão:
 I am here You don't have to worry I can see your tears I'll be there in a hurry when you call Friends are there to catch you when you fall
 Here's my shoulder you can lean on me

there's a child Who is sick and begging to be free
 But there is no cure for his disease
 He looks up to his mother and
 As she hold his hand Praying that someday
 The sun will shine again And pain will end

Refrão:
 Tell me how can I how can I love Jesus
 When I've never seen His face I see you dying
 And I turn and walk away
 So hold my hand Let me take you to a friend of mine
 He's waiting just to ease your troubled mind
 Stead of walking away Open up your heart and say
