

Kiss - Uh! All Night

```
Tom: G
                                                                  Prison starts at quarter to nine
                                                                  [Rhy. Fig 4 w/ End 1]
  Rhythm Fig. 1a
                                                                  It takes a hard workin' lover
     P.M. - - - ->
                                                                  To keep on towin' the line
                                                                  I'll meet you under the covers
Rhythm Fig. 1b
                                                                  I get excited, I'm so excited
     P.M. - - - - - - - >
                                                                  [Rhy. Fig 2a w/ Riff 1]
                                                                  Well, we work all day
Rhythm Fig. 2a (light P.M. on open 5th)
                                                                  And we don't know why
                                                                  Well, there's just one thing that money can't buy [Rhy. Fig 2b w/ Riff 1]
                                                                  When your body's been starved feed your appetite
                          Let ring
                                                                  When you work all day, you gotta Uh! all night
Rhythm Fig. 2b (light P.M. on open 5th)
                                                                  [Rhy. Fig 1 (2x)]
                                                                 Uh, uh, uh, uh, whoo
                                                                  [Rhy. Fig 3]
                                                                  Take me to the jungle, honey
Rhythm Fig. 3
                                                                 We're livin' in a human zoo
                                                                  Getcha turnin' tricks for money
                                                                  I'd rather roll around with you
                                                                  [Rhy. Fig 4 w/ End 2]
                                                                  'Cause when the waitin' is over
I come a-runnin' to you
                                                                  I got the whole night to show you
                                                                  I get excited, I'm so excited
Rhythm Fig. 4
                                                                  [Rhy. Fig 2a w/ Riff 1] (2x)
                                                                  Well, we work all day
                                                                  And we don't know why
                                                                  Well, there's just one thing that money can't buy
                                                                  When your body's been starved feed your appetite
                                                                  When you work all day, you gotta Uh! all night
Fnd 1
                                                                  [Rhy. Fig 5] (Start solo)
                                                                  Ooh, let me hear you, uh, right, uh, uh, uh, yeah
Fnd 2
                                                                  [Solo over Rhythm Fig. 2a w/ Riff 1]
                                                                  [Rhy. Fig 2b w/ Riff 1]
Rhythm Fig. 5 (P.M. on single notes)
                                                                  [Rhy. Fig. 1b] (8x)
     < - - - - - 3x - - - - - >
                                                                  Well, we work all day
                                                                  And we don't know why
                                                                  Well, there's just one thing that money can't buy
Riff 1
                                                                  When your body's been starved feed your appetite
                                                                 When you work all day, you gotta Uh! [Riff 2]
Riff 2
                                                                  [Rhy. Fig. 2b]
                                                                 They got me workin', they got me runnin'
But when I'm comin' home to you, yeah
    Fade in Solo
                                                                  [Rhy. Fig. 2a]
                                                                  Well, we work all day
    < - 11x - >
                                         < - 3x - >
                                                                  And we don't know why
                                                                  [Rhy. Fig. 2b]
                                                                  Well, there's just one thing that money can't buy
                                                                 When your body's been starved feed your appetite
                                                                  When you work all day, you gotta Uh! all night
UH! ALL NIGHT
                                                                  [Rhy. Fig. 2a]
                                                                 Well, we work all day (they got me working)
(P. Stanley & D. Child & J. Beauvoir)
                                                                  And we don't know why (they got me runnin')
[Rhy. Fig 1a] (4x)
                                                                  Well, there's just one thing that money can't buy (ooh yeah)
[Rhy. Fig 2a w/ Riff 1] (2x)
                                                                  [Rhy. Fig. 2b]
                                                                  When you body's been starved (my body's hungry)
[Rhy. Fig 3]
Everywhere around the world
                                                                  Feed your appetite (don't need no money)
Everybody's doin' time
                                                                  When you work all day, you gotta Uh! all night (comin' home,
Freedom comes at 5:15
                                                                  yeah)
```

Acordes

