

Kodamine - What It Is

tom:
Capostrate na 3ª casa

So you're standing in the parking lot of life
And you're try'na figure out your fate tonight
Then you hear a sound commin' out of the car radio
Sayin' son if you don't learn then you will never know

So you try to drag your feet down to the bar
When you starting to forget just who you are
And they told you it was written in the stars
But you've never had a chance to look that far

Yhea.. that's just the way it goes
Maybe you'll die young before you're old
Yhea.. that's just the way it is
Nobody's gonna tell you how to live

In a world that changes every day
It's easy to get lost along the way

In a world that's never as it seems
Where people try buy and sell their dreams
Where people try buy and sell their dreams

Yhea.. that's just the way it goes
Maybe you'll die young before you're old
Yhea.. that's just the way it is
Nobody's gonna tell you how to live
Nobody's gonna tell you how to live

Yhea.. that's just the way it goes
Maybe you'll die young before you're old
Yhea.. that's just the way it is
Nobody's gonna tell you how to live
Nobody's gonna tell you how to live

Nobody's gonna tell you how to live
Nobody's gonna tell you how to live
'Cos nobody understands just what it is
