I know you better than you know
You can fight but it's not over
I say to stop but you start to go
I guess that means it's L-O-V-E

I say to look but you turn away
I say we put our best foot forward
Will you believe come next to me
Oh why can't you see I'm begging you please

But it's alright alright with me
It's alright alright with me
It's alright alright with me
It's alright alright with me

(Yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah yeah)

And I'm knocking on your door
Baby baby please now
Falling on your floor
Baby baby please
I keep knocking on your door
Baby baby please now
Falling on your floor
Baby baby please

But it's alright alright with me
It's alright alright with me
It's alright alright with me
It's alright alright with me
