

XXC Worship - That's Who You Are

tom:
Intro: Gm F Eb Bb2
C Ebm Ebm

[Primeira Parte]

I can just about imagine
The love that it would take
To lay down my life for a friend
But I could never fathom
The wonder of your grace
How You bled and then You died
To save Your enemies

[Pré-Refrão]

How did You surrender
Even unto death
And take upon the punishment
I should have got instead
I don't understand it
I cannot comprehend
His love that knows no end

[Refrão]

Oh, oh, oh
That's who You are That's who You are
Oh, oh, oh

That's who You are That's who You are [Segunda Parte]
You help me to embody
The love You gave away
And to lay down my life for my enemies
To humbly walk in mercy
And overflow with grace
To take that cross laid down in front of me

[Pré-Refrão 2]

Help me to surrender
Even unto death
To face the ones who've wounded me
And forgive them all instead
To overcome my nature
And follow in Your steps
With a love that knows no end

[Ponte]

You love the ones who ha--ted You
Let that love be found in my heart too
You forgave the ones who wounded You
Let forgiveness flood
From my heart to
