

Kygo - Raging

```
Tom: Gb
                                                                  Talking to a stranger is nothing new
 (com acordes na forma de C )
Capostraste na 6º casa
                                                                  She knows how to smile but not like you
Intro: Am C F C
                                                                  So I wait for you all night
[Verse]
                                                                  [Pre-Chorus]
Standing in the cold in the frozen wind
                                                                  I know that you hate it, and I hate it
I'm leaving you behind but it's not the end
                                                                  Just as much as you
                                                                  But if you can brave it, I can brave it
No, no, no
Walking on a plane as I hold my breath
                                                                  Brave it all for you
It's gonna be weeks 'til I breathe again
                                                                  [Chorus]
No, no, no
                                                                  Call me anytime you can see the lightning
[Pre-Chorus]
                                                                  Don't you be alone, you can always find me
I know that you hate it, and I hate it
                                                                  We've got our wild love raging, raging
Just as much as you
                                                                  Lost among a million changing faces
But if you can brave it, I can brave it
                                                                  Every day our eyes keep trading places
Brave it all for you
                                                                  We've got our wild love raging, raging
[Chorus]
                                                                  [Interlude]
                                                                  F Am G Dm
Call me anytime you can see the lightning
                                                                  F Am G
Don't you be alone, you can always find me
                                                                  Raging, raging
We've got our wild love raging, raging
                                                                  [Chorus]
Lost among a million changing faces
                                                                  Call me anytime you can see the lightning
Every day our eyes keep trading places
We've got our wild love raging, raging
                                                                  Don't you be alone, you can always find me
                                                                  We've got our wild love raging, raging
[Interlude]
F Am G
                                                                  Holding on the wind with you forever
Raging, raging
                                                                  Holding onto us for worse or better
                                                                  We've got our wild love raging, raging
F Am G
Raging, raging
                                                                  [Interlude]
                                                                  F Am G
\mathsf{F}\ \mathsf{Am}\ \mathsf{G}
                                                                  Raging, raging
F Am G
                                                                  F Am G
Raging, raging
                                                                  Raging, raging
[Verse]
                                                                  [Outro]
Checking into hotel loneliness
                                                                  Call me anytime you can see the lightning
It's not what I've been used to, I confess
                                                                  Never feel alone, you can always find \ensuremath{\mathsf{me}}
So wake up three times a night
                                                                  We've got our wild love raging, raging
```

Acordes

