                                                             You say there's nothing here, well let's make something clear
The sun is nearly gone, the lights are turning on
                                                             I think I'll be the one to make that call (But, you'll call?)
A silver shine that stretches to the sea
                                                                                                Adim
                                                             And though you looked so cute in your polyester suit (It's

                          Fdim
We stumbled on a view that's tailored made for two wool)
What a shame those two are you and me
                                                             You're right, I'd never fall for you at all
Some other girl and guy
                                                             And maybe this appeals
   Eb7
Would love this swirling sky
                                                             To someone not in heels

But theres only you and I
                                                             Or to any girl who feels

And we've got no shot
                                                             There's some chance for romance

This could never be
                                                                                D7
                                                             But I'm frankly feeling nothing (Is that so?)

You're not the type for me (Really?)
                                                                                    D7
