```
   F       Am              G              F
Love, something you know nothing of
        Am          G         F
Cause love don't turn and run
            Am    G       F         Am      G
And leave you standing in the dark
  F     Am          G              F
You, tell me that your feelings changed
         Am              G         F
And you don't wanna stay and break my heart
     Am      G      F         Am     G
Well baby it's too late

                  F
Cause what about the times that you said to me
        G
That I was everything that you'd ever need
   F
How come you just up and walk away
            G
And look me in the eye and say

                        F
You did it all for love
Am      G           F
You did it all for love
Am      G           F
You did it all for love
Am      G
You did it all for

   F     Am      G                 F
Love, what was I supposed to do?
```

Am          G           F
Falling out can be so cruel
            Am      G         F         Am     G
But I just can't ignore the truth
   F       Am         G           F
So, don't tell me I don't understand
        Am          G         F
Cause I don't want this on my hands
              Am        G      F        Am     G
But it's all that's left to do

F
Everything you want's what we used to be
        G
And I can't fight these feelings inside of me
        F
As much as this hurts, it's the only way
        G
Believe me when I say

                        F
I did it all for love
Am      G           F
I did it all for love
Am      G           F
I did it all for love
Am      G           F
I did it all for love

F         Am      G     x 4

   F     Am              G              F
Love, something you know nothing of
        Am          G              F
Cause if you did, there's still be an us
Am          G         F
I did it all for love
