

Laila - Colder Throats

Tom: G

Intro: C G Em C G

G
Have you ever loved somebody
C
But the timing wasn't right
Em
Still in my head im in anothers bed
G C
They say the river isn't right
G
Cold smoke spilling out of colder throats
C Em
Young handsome blue eyes the night goes on
C G
Untill the time reaches the night sky of dawn
C Em C
Does this even count as lving at all

Em
But i'll, i'll never be your lover
G C
I will only ever be the heat
Em G
Thats right, next to you after hours under cover
C G
Company feeling all to familiar sheets

G C
The light, at the end of this cigarette
Em C
Is probably the closet ill ever get to a star
G
Except maybe you
C
With milky ways in your hair
Em

And comets showing out of your eyes
C
My darkest song sounds kinda like

Em
But i'll... i'll never be your lover
G C
I will only ever be the heat
Em G
Thats right, next to you after hours under cover
C
Company feeling all to familiar sheets

Am
Without friction there is no fire
C
Where is your burning hellish desire
G
A love that we left back in Oakland
D Am
A liquor lust we use to admire
C G
And tell me here, where did ya go
D Am
Has fallen out my mouth one to many times
C G
My life is one long life fight
D
One long life fight

C Em
But I'll, I'll never be your lover
G C
I will only ever feel heat
Em G
Thats right, next to you after hours under cover
C G
Company feeling all too familiar sheets

Acordes

