In the middle of the night

Up at the moon no matter what

In the eye of a hurricane

When I got one foot in the grave

I'll dig my boots into the dirt

And face the rolling thunder

Bm
I'm five generations of blazing a trail
D
Through barbed wire valleys and overgrown dells
A
I'm barefoot and bareback and born tough as nails
Em
Whoa-ooh-oh, ooh-oh
Bm
I'm four fifths of reckless and one fifth of jack
I push like a daisy through old sidewalk cracks
Yeah, my kinda crazy's still running its courses
G
With wildflowers and wild horses

[Segunda Parte]

Bm
It's in the water in my veins
