Dum dum

Go to school today
C
Dum dum

Em
I belong to a bygone era
C
Like the Scarlett O'Hara of the downtown scene
G D
Cause I just wanna dream, I just wanna drink
Em
I'm a pop-blues singer, fam-bam zinger
C G D
Mansfield ringer from the Hollywood silver screen, silver screen

Em C
Once you've had something, something so beautiful
G D
You'll never be the same
Em C
Once you've had a taste of heaven my way
G D
You'll be forever changed

Em
I'm a wild child, sky high, lying on your floor

C
I know I had a lot, but baby, what's a little more?
G
Dum dum

Want a little more
C
Dum dum

Em
In my white mink, pink cigarettes from the store

We're making robberies from Tijuana to the shore
G
Dum dum

'Juana to the shore
C
Dum dum

Em
I belong to a bygone era
C
Like the Bugsy Malone of the deep Sahara
G D
Cause I'm on the scene, yeah, I'm on the scene
Em
I'm a bad jazz singer, giving you the finger
C
No matter what, you'll linger
G D
Cause you like me even when I'm mean, I'm the queen

Em C
Once you've had something, something so beautiful
G D
You'll never be the same
Em C
Once you've had a taste of heaven my way
