

Lana Del Rey - Fine China

Tom: G

[Primeira Parte]

D G Bm
I wore diamonds for the birth of your baby
Em
For the birth of your son
C G
On the same day my husband to be
Em
Packed his things to run
Am G C
Was bittersweet to say the least
Em C
One life begins one comes undone
D C
I've always been a strong woman of faith
Em C
Strong like a tree but the unlucky one

[Pré-Refrão]

D
I'm going down, now
With all of my

[Refrão]

C D
Fine china and fresh linen
G Em C
All of my dresses with them tags still on them
C D
Fine china and dull silver
G Em C
My white horses and my ivory almonds
C Em D
I guess they really got the best of us, didn't they?
C D
They said that love was enough but it wasn't
C D
The earth shattered, the sky opened
G Em C
The rain was fire but we were wooden

[Segunda Parte]

G Bm
I wore diamonds for the day of our wedding
Em
For our day in the sun
C G Em
On the same day my mother to be said she wouldn't come
Am G C
It's always been that way with me
Em C
No time for change no time for fun
D C
It's always been that way it seems
Em C
One love begins one comes undone

[Pré-Refrão]

D

[Ponte]

C D
All of my all of my fine china
Em D
All of my all of my fine china
C D
All of my all of my fine china
Em D
Blue uh, blue

C D
All of my all of my fine china
Em D
All of my all of my fine china
C D
All of my all of my fine china
Em D
Blue uh, blue
