[Primeira Parte]

G D
I mean, Henry, come on
A Bm
Do you think I'd really choose it?
G D
All this off and on
Em
Henry, come on
G D
I mean, baby, come on
A Bm
Do you think I'd really lose it on ya?
G D
If you did nothin' wrong
A
Henry, come on

[Pré-Refrão]

G
Last call: Hey, y'all
D
Hang his hat up on the wall
A Bm
Tell him that his cowgirl is gone
A
Go on and giddy up
G
Soft leather, blue jeans
D
Call us into void's dreams
A Em
Return it but say it was fun

[Refrão]

G D
And it's not because of you
A Bm
That I turned out so dangerous
G D
Yesterday, I heard God say
A
It's in your blood
G D
And it struck me just like lightning
A Bm
I've been fightin', I've been strivin'

G D
Yesterday, I heard God say
Em
You were born to be the one
G
To hold the hand of the man
A
Who flies too close to the Sun

(Bm G D)
(G D Em)

[Segunda Parte]

G D
I'll still be nice to your mom
A Bm
It's not her fault you're leavin'
G D

Some people come and they're gone
A
They just fly away

G D
Take your ass to the house
A Bm
Don't even bother explainin'
G D
There's no workin' it out
Em
No way

[Pré-Refrão]

G
It's last call: Hey, y'all
D
Hang his hat up on the wall
A Bm
Tell him that his cowgirl is gone
Come on and giddy up

G
Soft leather, blue jeans
D
Don't you get it? That's the thing
A Em
You can't chase a ghost when it's gone

[Refrão]

G D
And it's not because of you
A Bm
That I turned out so dangerous
G D
Yesterday, I heard God say
A
It's in your blood
G D
And it struck me just like lightning
A Bm
I've been fightin', I've been strivin'
G D
But yesterday, I heard God say
Em
You were born to be the one
G
To hold the hand of the man
A
Who flies too close to the Sun

(G D A Bm)
(G D Em)

[Ponte]

G D
All these country singers
A Bm
And their lonely rides to Houston
G D Em
Doesn't really make for the best
"You know, settle down type"
