

Lana Del Rey - Old Money

```
Tom: D
                                                               All out of time
                                                               Will you still love me when I shine?
Blue hydrangea
                                                                              D A
Cold cash, divine
                                                               From words, but not from beauty
           D
                                                                           Bm
                                                               My father's love
Cashmire, cologne
           Gbm
And white sunshine
                                                               Was always strong
        Bm
Red racing cars
                                                              My mother's glamour
                                                                     Gbm
Sunset and vine
                                                               Lives on and on
        D
The kids were young and pretty
                                                               Yet still inside I felt alone
                                                                    D A
                                                               For reasons unknown to me
Where have you been
Where did you go
                                                               And if you'd send for me
                                                                Bm
                                                               You know I'll come
Those summer nights
       Gbm
                                                               And if you'd call for me
Seem long ago
       Bm
                                                                Bm A
                                                               You know I'll run
So is the girl
                                                                 Bm
                                                               I'll run to you, I'll run to you

D

A

I'll run, run, run
You used to call
   D
The queen of new york city
                                                                  Bm
                                                               I'll come to you, I'll come to you
But if you'd send for me
                                                               I'll come, come, come
You know I'll come

D

G

And if you'd call for me
                                                               Ooooooh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh
                                                                     G
You know I'll run
                                                               Aaaaaah, Ah, Ah, Ah, Ah
   Bm
I'll run to you, I'll run to you
                                                              And if you call I'll run, run, run
   D A
I'll run, run, run
Bm
                                                               If you change your mind I'll come, come, come
I'll come to you, I'll come to you

D
A
I'll come, come, come
                                                              Blue hydrangea
                                                               Cold cash, divine
Ooooooh, Oh, Oh, Oh, Oh
Bm G A
Aaaaaah, Ah, Ah, Ah, Ah
                                                               Cashmire, cologne
                                                                          Gbm
                                                               And white sunshine
                                                                       Bm
The power of youth
                                                               Red racing cars
      G
                                                                         G
Is on {\rm my\ mind}
                                                               Sunset and vine
Sunset, small town
                                                               And we were young and pretty
```

Acordes

