What do you need to get high for
When your baby?s so to die for?
                                                                If you want a cola, I can make it colder,
Quit your job let?s make a ride for it
                                                                If you want a bad girl, Nobody?s bolder,
                                                                And if you want the Queen Of New York then you better call me,
If you want it super-size, I can do that for you.
                                                                call me.
If you want it double fries, I can do that for you.
                                                                Lights, lights, Sights, sights.
If you wanna good surprise, I can do that for you.
                                                                Buy me Coca Cola in the middle of the night.
If you won?t believe your eyes, I can do that for you.
                                                                Ah-ah-ah, ah-ah-ah,
What do you need to get high for,
                                                                Lights, lights, Sights, sights.

call me.
                                                                If you want a cola, I can make it colder,
If you want some dirty lies, I can do that for you.
                                                                If you want a bad girl, Nobody?s bolder,
Watch me dance for other guys, I can do that for you.
                                                                And if you want the Queen Of New York then you better call me,
Tell you everything's alright, I can do that for you.
                                                                If you want a cola, I can make it colder,
Never ever leave your side, I can do that for you.
                                                                If you want a bad girl, Nobody?s bolder,
What do I need to get high for?
                                                                And if you want the Queen Of New York then you better call me,
                                                                call me.
There ain't no reason to cry for.
