

Lany - Pink Skies

tom:

G

Thrift store fashion

Imperfect tattoos

Taking showers

Minus shampoo

You are my favorite everything

Been telling girls that since I was sixteen

Shut up, I love you

You're my best friend

Get you under pink skies, I know exactly where we should go

'Cause I love the way your green eyes mix with that Malibu indigo

Talking under pink skies, I think our hearts are starting to show

That it's better, You and I, under pink skies

Underwear I kinda care wanna look good for you

British bomb you turn me on no matter what you do

You are my favorite everything

Been telling you that since Twenty-Fifteen

Shut up I love you
