

Larry And His Flask - Ellipsis

tom: Intro: D G D A D G D [Primeira Parte] Swayin? lights on a hillside, almost forgot my name Carside houses in the desert tide, they all look the same And for a fleeting moment, there was terror in your eyes A haunting revelation or a clever disguise [Refrão] Just give me that ellipsis There was never any harm from a couple of dots The time forgot, to fill up the empty pages [Segunda Parte] We built a fire in the kitty-litter mill, the old brick barely took the heat Took a lot just to get our fill, pile of hot coals on cold concrete At a glance I noticed, there were tears in your eyes A total realization, we?d have to say goodbye [Refrão] Just give me that ellipsis There was never any harm from a couple of dots The time forgot, to fill up the empty pages Please grant me that illusion Of a different time, where the stories there, written with And nothing ever changes

(D G D A)

(D G D A)

D G D A

Could you really see yourself completely fadin? away
D G D A

Or was it more like the reflection in a window pane?

B7 Bm A

Not quite so vivid, a couple shadows overlapped
Bm G A

And everything behind you, looks pale and trapped

[Ponte]

Bm
I?ve been lookin? ?round the streets tonight A
E
With a melody so poor
Bm
Gbm
And a collection of some words that rhyme
A
E
G A
D
Help the drama to unfold

D A
Just give me that ellipsis
G

There was never any harm from a couple of dots $\frac{A}{A}$ The time forgot, to fill up the empty pages $\frac{A}{A}$ Please grant me that illusion

Of a different time, where the stories there, written with care

And nothing ever changes

[Refrão]

[Refrão]

Just give me that ellipsis

There was never any harm from a couple of dots

The time forgot, to fill up the empty pages

Please grant me that illusion

 $\ensuremath{\text{Of}}$ a different time, where the stories there, written with care

And nothing ever changes

[Final] D A G A Bm

Acordes

