                                                                 I'm back to hard work, these days seems even worse
                                                                 It must be so with you
I wake-up in the morning, already have someone to telling me
                                                                No money every day, are in the debts that I've paid what to do
                                                                           Bh
                                                                 I need to forward my debut
Another day is beginning, but you better start praying because I?ll do what my heart says, trying every single day it is the truth it is the truth
                                                                 Keep my faith and just believe
Time passes, nothing changes, the days are always the same
                                                                 Six strings on my back, a cry of freedom stuck in throat
Is that even what I need?
                                                                 I know... my dreams cannot wait
            C
Coming back home unhappy! On \mathsf{tv}? A bunch of trash
Is this the life I want for me?
                                                                 Tell me why the guitar is out of my plans?
                                                                 Tell me why God could not give me a chance?
Tell me why the guitar is out of my plans?
                                                                 I don't want to hear the old talk of right and wrong
Tell me why God could not give me a chance?
                                                                 ?Cause I know this talk, too much
I don't want to hear the old talk of right and wrong
?Cause I know this talk, too much
                                                                 Living this day
                                                                 And I don't have another chance
Living this day
                                                                 If you really think that you can predict what will come
And I don't have another chance
                                                                 You will get rich, that is? maybe someday
If you really think that you can predict what will come
                                                                             D D
                             G
                                                                 C G Am
You will get rich, that is? maybe someday
                                                                    Someday, yeah
                                                                Maybe someday

                                                                           Alright
                                                                 Hey, that is maybe some? Hey that is maybe some
That is maybe someday
That is maybe someday
                                                                Hey that is maybe someday
