

Laufey - Serendipity

tom:

I won't pretend, I've been desolate
 I won't pretend, I've been blue
 It happened so quickly, one second it hit me
 I've fallen quite hard over you
 I won't pretend, I've been anxious Just like I've always been
 This time, it's sticking
 And time just stops ticking
 When I have my arms around you
 Four-leaf clovers and lucky dimes
 Coincidences and cosmic signs
 Have proved that I am quite naïve
 I'm falling fast, filling gravity
 And all that I see is serendipity

Ran into you on the corner
 Of ninety and Central Park West
 Oh, how it thrilled me, I thank the big city
 And, this, I will rarely confess
 In years when we're losing our memory
 The world's taken leaps over time
 I hope that you'll look at me like I'm still twenty-three
 Hope that you still be mine
 Four-leaf clovers and lucky dimes
 Coincidences and cosmic signs
 Have proved that I am quite naïve
 I'm falling fast, filling gravity
 I swear that, this time, it's serendipity
 Serendipity
 Serendipity
