

Laufey - Snow White

tom:
Intro: D D D D

[Primeira Parte]

Can't help but notice
All of the ways
In which I failed myself
I failed the world all the same
I don't think I'm pretty
It's not up for debate
A woman's best currency is her body
Not her brain

[Refrão]

They try to tell me
Tell me I'm wrong
But mirrors tell lies to me
My mind just plays along
The world is a sick place
At least for a girl
The people want beauty
Skinny always wins and I don't have Enough of it
I'll never have enough of it

[Interlude] D D

[Segunda Parte]

Sometimes I see her
She looks like Snow Whit?
She's everything I am
But my wrongs are turned to rights
Her body is smaller
Skin is so fair
She's achieved everything I've dreamed of
And it's all that I can think of

[Refrão]

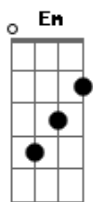

They try to tell me
Tell me I'm wrong
But mirrors tell lies to me
My mind just plays along
The world is a sick place
At least for a girl
The people want beauty
Skinny always wins and I don't have Enough of it
I'll never have enough of it

[Final] D D D
