

Laura Dalmás - Try

Tom: Ab

(forma dos acordes no tom de F)

Capostrate na 3ª casa

Intro: G D Bm7 A
G D Bm7 A

I used to have you in my arms late at night

Now you're on your own, getting high

I guess we're running out of time

But I prefer these lies to dying

Love is not a game

I say yes, you say no

I'm beggin you to stay tonight

But now you go

They say i'm crazy

But I try, try, try to make you love me

Try, try, try to understand you

Why, why, why you always run away

They say i'm crazy

But I try, try, try to make you love me

Try, try, try to understand you

Why, why, why you always run away

I used to have you in my arms late at night

Now you're on your own, getting high

I guess we're running out of time

But I prefer these lies to dying

Love is not a game

I say yes, you say no

I'm beggin you to stay tonight

But now you go

They say i'm crazy

But I try, try, try to make you love me

Try, try, try to understand you

Why, why, why you always run away

They say i'm crazy

But I try, try, try to make you love me

Try, try, try to understand you

Why, why, why you always run away

Love is not a game

I say yes, you say no

I'm beggin you to stay tonight

But now you go

They say i'm crazy

But I try, try, try to make you love me

Try, try, try to understand you

Why, why, why you always run away

They say i'm crazy

But I try, try, try to make you love me

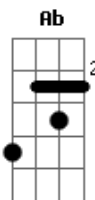

Try, try, try to understand you

Why, why, why you always run away

(D G Bm7 A)

You always run away
