           I've been a winding road, oh, I know, You know
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         Oh, I know
          Sometimes a stranger in my home
                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                   I've searched the world to find my heart is Yours
         Keep going back and forth through the open door
