

League Of Legends - Here Comes Vi

Tom: A

She's such a misfit, always ready to brawl
 It's like her business, roughing up your friends as the law
 There is no difference if you believe you're strong She's a bulldozer making sure you're flat on the ground

She's like a boomerang, who never gives up
 She flies in circles till she hits you and you're biting the dust
 So just remember this, when she's chasing you down Face first you'll be thrown into the Proving Grounds N.C.
 She'll knock you out

Refrão:

Have you ever really wanted to be a total rebel flipping tables on the enemy?
 Did you ever try to further improve how fast you punch people through the roof?

Was there ever any certain time when you thought brute force and style combine well?

I guess now's time to shine cause finally she's here.
 Here comes Vi

 And as a matter of fact, the best bet one has is to quickly react to the first attack that's aiming for the bones cause she'll never pull back and just risk it.
