

Lemonheads - It's All True

Tom: G

I haven't cried, baby, since I learned to talk

Haven't fallen down since I learned to walk

And I don't get bored watching the tube

And I never had a rock in my shoe

And if I tried, baby, would you mess me 'round?

Would we both get bored by the simple sound

Sorry about dropping that lude

It just seemed like the best thing to do

It's all true

I got me

She's got you

And we got time to share a few

You never get me down when I'm feeling blue

When I tell you lies you won't believe they're true

Now I really should be on my way

Think I'm gonna stick around all day

It's all true

I got me

She's got you

And we got time to share a few

[Solo] Em A D Em A D

She's so precise with her exacto knife

She's gonna take her life

(Em A D C)

I don't wake up with a sudden start

With some empty arms and a broken heart

And I don't get bored watching the tube
