

Lena Meyer-Landrut - Brown Blue Eyes

tom:

Intro: G Dm C Am

[Primeira Parte]

G
Comin' home, actin' not like myself
Dm
Expecting you to comfort me out of my
Shell
C
I'm drownin' in my misery, you smile it
Away
Am
And you stay the same
G
I'm torn between my doubts and
Exaggerated faith
Dm
With tears in my eyes, screamin', "I am
Okay"
C
It's the end of my world, you just pour
The champagne
Am
'Cause you stay the same

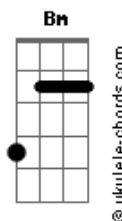

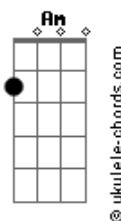

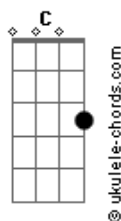

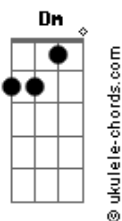

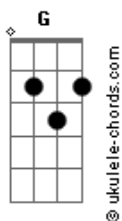

[Pré-Refrão]

Bm Am
Mm, when you kiss me slowly
Bm
And you love me all night long
Bm
When you bring me home
N.c
I finally can tell what is right and
What's wrong

[Refrão]

G Dm
Oh, mirror on the wall
C
Why do I look in you at all?
When all the glass is broken, babe
Am
I see myself in your brown-blue eyes
G Dm
Oh, mirror on the wall
C
Why do I look in you at all?
When all the glass is broken, babe
Am
I see myself in your brown-blue eyes

Acordes

[Segunda Parte]

G
Showed me symbiotic and emotionally free
Dm
Can mutually exist, they don't necessarily
C
Exclude each other's guts, that's my
Therapy
Am
We work hand in hand
G
Our story made me trust in love again
Dm
I'm wrapped in your existence, you're my Equivalent
C
You're usin' words to translate emotions
And then
Am
We can understand

[Pré-Refrão]

Bm Am
Mm, when you kiss me slowly
Bm
And you love me all night long
Bm
When you bring me home
N.c
I finally can tell what is right and
What's wrong

[Refrão]

G Dm
Oh, mirror on the wall
C
Why do I look in you at all?
When all the glass is broken, babe
Am
I see myself in your brown-blue eyes
G Dm
Oh, mirror on the wall
C
Why do I look in you at all?
When all the glass is broken, babe
Am
I see myself in your brown-blue eyes
(G Dm)

[Final]

C
When all the glass is broken, babe
Am
I see myself in your brown-blue eyes G