

Leonard Cohen - Joan Of Arc

Tom: G
Intro: G

Now the flames they followed Joan of Arc
As she came riding through the dark
No moon to keep her armour bright
No man to get her through this very smoky night

She said, "I'm tired of the war
I want the kind of work I had before
A wedding dress or something white
To wear upon my swollen appetite."

La la la, la la la, la la la la la la
La la la la la la, la la la la la la, la la la la la la

Well, I'm glad to hear you talk this way
You know I've watched you riding every day
And something in me yearns to win
Such a cold and lonesome heroine

"And who are you?" she sternly spoke

To the one beneath the smoke
"Why, I'm fire," he replied
"And I love your solitude, I love your pride."

La la la, la la la, la la la la la la
La la la la la la, la la la la la la, la la la la la la

"Then fire, make your body cold
I'm going to give you mine to hold,"
Saying this she climbed inside
To be his one, to be his only bride

And deep into his fiery heart
He took the dust of Joan of Arc
And high above the wedding guests
He hung the ashes of her wedding dress

La la la, la la la, la la la la la la
La la la la la la, la la la la la la, la la la la la la

It was deep into his fiery heart
He took the dust of Joan of Arc
And then she clearly understood
If he was fire, oh then she must be wood

I saw her wince, I saw her cry
I saw the glory in her eye
Myself I long for love and light
But must it come so cruel, and oh so bright?

La la la, la la la, la la la la la la
La la la la la la, la la la la la la, la la la la la la
