

Leonard Cohen - The Traitor

Tom: A

These are actually the chords from the cover of this song that Martha Wainwright did but these chords should be similar.

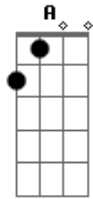

They are picked in a waltzy kind of fashion, like:

Now the A Swan it floated on the D English river
Ah the A Rose of High Romance it opened wide

A: -2--3--

Dbm Gbm D A
A sun tanned woman yearned me through the summer
E D A
and the judges watched us from the other side
