

Letter B - Madness

Tom: C

I can't see into your darkness
 But I've heard the reasons for what you seek
 I'm still following your footsteps
 And I can't understand where they lead
 You're running from the madness

But it's in the madness that we can find sanity
 Our mistakes can be forgiven
 But the blessings are not for us
 Each second that we've wasted
 Is exactly the same as losing our lives
 Nothing that is good comes from despair
 Not even the strength to overcome fear
