  It's a long and winding road
                         Em
From friends to something more
                       Am
I watched you give your soul
                         G
Then I watched you close that door

There's things that I expect when your jeans are on my Ford

You care, but you're careless
                       B7
And I just call it immature, but

It's the things you don't do for me that say enough

Sharing all of our clothes in a little white house

And I gave it a good try
         Gbm                 Abm             A
It's the things you don't do for me that say enough
