

The Libertines - Boys in the band

Tom: F

F
You walking like you never seen the light
you walking like it every night
G
but I never seen you dance and I never heard you sing
so how can it mean a single thing?
(D, G)
(it's all so rudimentary)
(C#, C, D) F

F
You talking like you handy in a fight
you talk about it every night
G
but I never seen your flowers in the barrel of a gun
all I ever seen you do is run...not a rude boy you're the gentry

so tell me baby, how does it feel?
I know you like the roll of the limousine wheel...
and they all get them out for the boys in the band (only for the boys in the band)
they scream and they shout for (twist and scream and shout)
Bb
for the boys in the band, the boys in the band...
(D, F)

F
you walking like you never seen the light
walking like it every night

but i never seen you laugh and I never heard you cry,
one of those things that darling you might try (all so rudimentary)

now I'm jealous I'm jealous of my own
I've no homestead but through these hearts I will roam...
and they all get them out for the boys in the band (only for
the boys in the band)
they scream and they shout for (twist and scream and shout)
Bb
for the boys in the band, the boys in the band...
(solo)

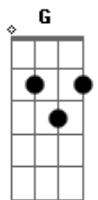

so tell me baby, how does it feel?
I know you like the roll of the limousine wheel...
and they all get them out for the boys in the band (only for
the boys in the band)
they scream and they shout for (twist and scream and shout)
Bb
for the boys in the band, the boys in the band...

and they all get them out for the boys in the band (only for
the boys in the band)
they scream and they shout for (twist and scream and shout)
Bb
for the boys in the band, the boys in the band...
