Linkin Park - P5hng Me Away

Tom: G

Em            C
when i look into your eyes
          G              D
there's nothing there to see Em                C
nothing but my own mistake
 G                    D
staring back at me
 Em          C      G D
i've lied to you
 Em           C
this is the last smile
 G                      D                    C         D
that i'll fake for the sake of being with you (everything falls apart, even the people who never frown,
eventually break down,
everything has to end, you'll soon find, we're outta time,
left to watch it all unwind)
Em        G                    C                    D
  for the sake of being with you (everything falls apart, even the people who never frown, eventually break down)
           Em         G     D
the sacrifice is never knowing
 E    C                    G       D
why i stayed with you just push away
          E         C
no matter what you see
               G         D
you're still so blind to me
 Em          C
i've tried like you
 G                       D
to do everything you wanted to Em       C
this is the last time
 G                  D                         C       D
i'll take the blame for the sake of being with you (everything falls apart, even the people who never frown,
eventually break down)
      Em            G        C         D
the sacrifice of hiding in a lie
(everything has to end, you'll soon find, we're outta time,

          Em          G     D
the sacrifice is never knowing
 E   C                      G       D
why i stayed with you just push away
          E         C
no matter what you see
               G          D

              C D
asking why.....
          Em         G         C D
the sacrifice of hiding in a lie
          Em         G     D
the sacrifice is never knowing
 E   C                    G       D
why i stayed with you just push away
              E         C
no matter what you see
               G          D
